

PR Intern

Public Affairs and Corporate Communications

Dialogue Communications is looking for a young talented and highly motivated communications person with a passion for developing and executing impactful campaigns to drive a successful engagement. The PR Intern will report directly to our Junior PR Consultant as well as working with Senior PR Consultant. Dialogue Communications is an equal opportunity employer and enthusiastically encouraging people from a wide variety of backgrounds and experiences to apply.

You will:

1. Supporting the consultants in implementing the PR strategy for clients.
2. Creating engaging content for media releases, social media platforms, and newsletters.
3. Providing assistance to the consultants with the scheduling and organizing of events.
4. Giving input on marketing initiatives and suggesting creative ways to improve the communications campaign.
5. Conducting research on marketing initiatives of the client's competitors.
6. Updating media lists.
7. Performing administrative duties.

You need:

1. Fresh graduate or final year student from multiple study such as Communications, International Relations, Business, and other related major.
2. Have an outstanding skills in deliberating their ideas both written and verbal.
3. Have huge interest in deepening their knowledge of various industry.